

I for one of many do not want to see broadband deregulated. The small provider in local areas provides service, custom programs, and employs LOCAL citizens in the marketplace. The mega marketeers do not give a hoot about the local guys.